

MISSION OF PLANTATION DEPARTMENT

- To develop renewable and sustainable pulpwood plantations through effective, innovative and best practices available.
- To disseminate efficient resource management practices among the farming communities and foster the growth in rural economy, employment and regional development
- To work towards continuous improvement / enhancement of productivity by adopting up-to-date technologies
- To commercialize forest plantations as alternate land use in arid and semi arid regions by adopting technological research inputs.
- To create resource base for industry in line with national forest policy